LOK SABHA

The following Bills were introduced in Lok Sabha on the 13th May, 1966:—

BILL No. 38 of 1966

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventeenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 1966.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

Short
Title
and commencement.

Amendment of Eighth Schedule. 2. In the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution, after entry 2, the tollowing new entry shall be inserted, namely:—

"2A. Dogri"

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Dogri is an ancient language and is spoken by about five million people in various parts of Jammu and Kashmir, Punjab and Himachal Pradesh. It has its own history, tradition and culture and should be included in the Eighth Schedule as one of the regional languages.

Hence this Bill.

NEW DELHI; The 16th March, 1963.

ABDUL GHANI GONI.

BILL No. 34 of 1966

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventeenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement. Amendment of article 51.

- 1. (1) This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 1966.
 - (2) It shall come into force at once.
- 2. In article 51 of the Constitution, after clause (d), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—
 - "(e) collaborate with other nations for the early formation of a World Constituent Assembly to draft the Constitution for a World Federal Government."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The time is opportune, nay ripe, for all good men and good governments of the World to get together and make earnest efforts for convening a World Constituent Assembly as a preparatory step towards the establishment of a Parliament of Man and Federation of the World. War cannot be abolished, nor can a warm, living peace descend on earth, unless such a World Order based on World Law is firmly founded.

Hence this Bill.
